Benny Kauff Must Make Good with the Giants

New York, March 15.-Benny Kauff's | Magee, who gave Kauff such a thrill New York, March 15.—Benny Kauff's position in baseball at this time is one that excites no envy. He must make good with a whoop in a Giant uniform or he'll be the most scoffed at player in the history of the pastime.

Kauff has boasted so often and so fluently about his prowess that even a good showing in 1916 will not save him from "pannings." He has led the folks to believe that he's the greatest player that ever hoofed onto a diamond—and he must deliver.

Magee, who gave Kauff such a thrill-ing battle for all-around honors in the 1915 Federal circuit, is drawing $9,200.

What'll Benny Do If—
Walter Johnson, the Senatorial "speed king" is getting between $12.-900 and $15,000. The exact amount is shrouded in mystery. Mathewson's contract calls for $10,000, while that of Grover Alexander contains a figure around $10,000. Jake Daubert, the first McCarthy laid down a nifty sacrifice, too slow for anybody to handle, and the bases were loaded. At this point Johnny Gilroy, who made history in football last fall, came forward and hit the first ball pitched to left field for a single, scoring Sullivan and Dempsey, McCarthy taking third on the throw in. On Maloney's long sacrifice fly to center McCarthy brought home another run.

One of the greatest weaknesses for the past few years has been the pitching department of the Hilltop nine and from the exhibition given by Owens. Finnegan and Murray yesterday this part of the play is more than able to hold its own. Nothing definite could be decided upon as to the exact strength of Coach O'Reilly's combination with the landed six punches to the head without Nothing definite could be declared upon as to the exact strength of Cosch O'Reilly's combination with the exception of the pitching end and it will take fully two more games to decide this issue.
